

Stuart Fields is a global workshop leader, speaker, transformational trainer and coach. Having worked in the USA, Japan, England, and Poland, Stu is a certified Canfield Success Principles trainer who uplifts adult learners around the world. During the pandemic of 2020, Stu virtually brought together 21 human potential experts/authors and interviewed them with his signature compassionate style to launch the Unleash the Leader Within virtual summit. This summit was a beacon of light during dark times, highlighting the individual power each person has to overcome tremendous challenges on their path to success. If there were one word to describe Stu, it would be “resilient”. More info at www.stuartbfields.com
